AJAX CAMPS 2023

London Summer Brochure

CAMP INFORMATION

The content of this 4-day camp will be based on the Ajax philosophy, which goes hand in hand with the unique training method of the Ajax Youth Academy.

- Camps are open for kids from around the world aged between 7 and 15
- All camps are run in both Dutch and English
- The day runs from 9.30 to 15.45
- The camps and clinics are based on the training methods followed by the Ajax youth players
- The skillset is diverse
- Each group has its own coach and there are a maximum of 12 participants per team
- There are three one-week camps that consist of four days in the UK with 2 in England, London and 1 in Scotland, Inverness
- The camps train on a variety of surfaces – from real grass to artificial, to all weather surface pitches
- There are prizes throughout the week including individual awards such as MVP (most valuable player) and team awards
- All Ajax Camps & Clinics are based on the inspiring values of Ajax itself
- Parents are invited to stay and watch the first and last training sessions of each day

FACILITY INFORMATION

King's House Sports Ground is located in the heart of West London. The facility comes with free parking on site with CCTV (limited space's). We offer a bar for refreshments and snacks, a coffee shop is located next to the tennis pitches that serves sandwiches and we will have our main kitchen open for the camp, from where you will be able to order your meals upfront.

The clubhouse is located next to the River Thames with beautiful views and just across the beautiful Barnes area which offers variety of restaurants, pubs and coffee shops.

Barnes Bridge Train Station is the closest option which is only 25 min away from London's central Waterloo station.

Tunham Green is one of many options to get of the tube and use the E3 bus to the club house.

Hammersmith is also a convenient option if using the London tube, from where you will have two busses 533 or 190 that will bring you to 5 min walk from the clubhouse.
